"I Bin Thinkin"
 By LEHMAN FRANKLIN
 This is a big year for the YMCA... because it was just 100 years ago that the organization established its first "beach head" at Boston and Montreal. It started seven years earlier in Great Britain... and right now it's probably the most active center in the country. The YMCA (and the YWCA) works with our most valuable resources... citizens. It has taught millions of youngsters loyalty, sportsmanship and teamwork... ideas that are vital to a free and better world. It helps "Y" boys to become wiser men and finer healthier citizens. Many happy returns!
 Kids, does it seem like it's nearly time for school to begin again? Just think, on September 10 you'll be back at the old grind. But also think, there'll be football games, the band, the parties, it's worth it. Or is it?
 We hear that with higher taxes and inflation the man who earned $5000 in 1940 now has to earn $9367 to have the same purchasing power. That's what makes Sammy Run. Hearing on Mill Street Junction Set For August 17 by Judge Renfro

Hearing of the petition of the F. W. Darby Lumber Company, asking that the city council of Statesboro be enjoined from taking any action Mill street has been set for Friday, August 17, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the courthouse.

Judge J. L. Renfro will hear the petition.

The Darby Lumber Company filed the injunction against the city authorities on July 28, the day before Mr. Darby and his attorney, W. G. Neville, were to have met with the city council in the council's chambers.

On June 22 Mayor Gilbert Cone wrote Mr. Darby notifying him to appear at the city council meeting on July 3, "to show cause why the nuisance and menace to the public safety you are maintaining on Mill street in Statesboro, Ga., should not be abated."

On July 3, Mr. Darby and his attorney, Mr. Neville, appeared as ordered, but Mr. Neville asked for an extension of time, which was granted. The new hearing was set for Tuesday, July 24. Mr. Darby appeared at this hearing alone, asking for further extension, stating that his attorney was busy in the July Term Superior Court. The hearing was then set for Friday, July 27.

It was on Thursday, July 26, that the mayor and members of city council were served with copies of the injunction which enjoined them from holding the meeting set for the next day.

Fred T. Lanier and George M. Johnston will represent the city. J. P. Dukes, W. G. Neville and Wm. J. Neville signed the petition for the Darby Lumber Company.

"The city was given until August 13 to file its answer to the petition. The hearing is open to the public."

Garden Club Fixes Up Health Center

With the new Bulloch County Health Center nearing completion, attention is focused on the flower planting in the boxes on the north, east, and south sides of the building.

The planning was under the direction of the Statesboro Garden Club. They chose the plants and arranged the planting. Grass and shrubbery for the health center grounds are planned for a later date.

Mrs. Sidney Lanier, Mrs. Buford Knight and Mrs. Howard Neal make up the committee in charge of the flower planting.

City Calls Election for Aug. 21 On City-School Merger

Gilbert Cone, mayor of Statesboro, announced this week that an election will be held here on Tuesday, August 21, to decide the question of whether or not the special school law creating the independent school system for the city of Statesboro shall be annulled and the schools of the city shall merge with and become a part of the school system of Bulloch county.

City Is Set to Enforce Garbage Can Ordinance

The city council, in session on Tuesday of this week, authorized Bill Bowen, chairman of the sanitation committee, to enforce the city ordinance which specifies the type garbage containers homeowners must use and controls the collection of garbage.

Mr. Bowen states that the ordinance specifies that all garbage containers must be of the regular "garbage can" type, including a lid. He adds that the 55 gallon oil drums being used by many citizens do not come under the specifications. He pointed out that it is difficult for the garbage and trash collectors to lift and handle these large drums when they are used to hold heavy garbage and trash. He concedes that they may be used to hold newspapers, light cardboard boxes, and other such light garbage. But he is specific about containers for heavy garbage, which must be placed in a can which collectors can handle quickly.

"The use of these heavy drums slows down the collection and increases considerably the cost of hauling," he said.

He added that the city is having a notice printed which garbage collectors will hand to those homeowners whose cans do not meet specifications. The notice will warn the homeowner that the ordinance will be enforced if he or she should fail to cooperate.

Mr. Bowen pointed out that a homeowner, as a simple matter of pride, should see that the garbage containers are covered. "It is a definite control of flies and mosquitoes," he said.

He also warned homeowners to discontinue piling trash and lawn trimmings in street gutters. He also asked them to discontinue the practice of putting trash in several small bags. "It must be contained in one bag," he said.

He emphasized the conditions with the statement that garbage trucks will not be allowed to enter those homes where the containers meet the city ordinance's specifications.

"If we are to have a clean, neat city, homeowners must cooperate with us," Mr. Bowen concluded.

The city council expressed its intention to back up Mr. Bowen in his attempt to enforce the ordinance and trash collection in Statesboro.

City Streets Now Have New Lights

And now there's more light. The Georgia Power Company has completed installation of 100 street lights on the main streets of Statesboro which put the city in a "new light."

Sam Strauss, district manager of the power company, stated that the lights were erected at a cost of $15,000 to the company. "They did what the city anything," he explained.

The lights are of a new design, 600-candlepower, and hang 24 feet above the street level. The candlepower and height is no greater than the old lights, but a polished mirror reflector increases the amount of light shed on the street surface. They are set at the 24-foot height to prevent glare in the eyes of motorists and to give better distribution of light.

At the first of the year five new lights were erected on East Main street as an experiment. They proved that much more effective than the city authorized the power company to proceed with complete installation. The lights are on South Main street to the railroad, on North Main to the railroad, on West Main to College street, on East Main to Logan Hagan's Store, and on Savannah avenue to Mulberry street.

The 100 new lights replaced 22 old lights which had been in use since 1937.

Bulloch 4-Hers Off to 4-H Camp

Bulloch county 4-H Club boys have reserved the Chatham county 4-H Club camp for next week end, August 17, 18 and 19.

The camp is located at Tybee and will take care of about 100 campers. Local clubbers hope to fill the camp for this second annual week end outing.

More than 65 boys went down last year and invited their parents down on Sunday. Around 125 were there for the final day. The boys will be supervised by their mothers and fathers to visit them on Sunday.

W. B. Adams, a Register advertiser, will provide transportation for the group which will leave on Friday, August 17, at 2 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Doris R. Cason, Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Hagan, Mrs. W. B. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus G. Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Thompson, and John Thomas Brannen have been invited by the boys to serve as advisors, along with County Agents Byron Dyer and Robert Wynn.

The camping program for this week end involves swimming and fishing, mostly with very little of the usual camping activity included.

At the Monday morning roll call, a wreck at the intersection of North Main and U. S. Route 80, was found guilty, fined $24, and had his driver's license taken up and forwarded to the State Department of Safety for suspension of three years. Richard Tucker was charged with being "drunk in a car on the streets," found guilty, fined $25, and had his license "picked up."

According to Chief of Police Henry Anderson, this is the sixth license the city authorities have suspended and turned over to the department of safety since the new Motor Vehicle Safety, Responsibility law went into effect July 1.

Under the law it is mandatory upon the director of the Department of Safety to revoke a driver's license if he is found guilty of "driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors or drugs."

Charles Sheffield was found guilty of speeding on South Main street at 50 m.p.h. and was fined $10. Edwin James Ervin drove a $10 fine for speeding at 50 m.p.h. on South Main street.

Hereford Sale Here August 24

A purebred Hereford sale is scheduled for Statesboro on August 24. F. C. Parker Jr., manager of the Statesboro Livestock Commission Company barn, announces.

This is the second of a series of purebred cattle sales planned for the year. The first sale was on August 14. Mr. Aycock and Sons, Moultrie, Ga. Mr. Aycock advised Mr. Parker and the county agent's office that he had ample cattle consigned to warrant the sale and believed the cattle would be better all around than at the sale held some three months ago.

Mr. Aycock rents the livestock commission company barn for the sales and brings his own group of auctioneers to keep in the county and plan to try to help those who still want and pasture work done.

Two Racetrack Drivers Lose Licenses Monday

Two of Statesboro's racetrack drivers will not be answering Mayor Gilbert Cone's Monday morning roll call for a long time. At the Monday morning roll call, Charles Howard, charged with drunk driving and causing a wreck at the intersection of North Main and U. S. Route 80, was found guilty, fined $24, and had his driver's license taken up and forwarded to the State Department of Safety for suspension of three years. Richard Tucker was charged with being "drunk in a car on the streets," found guilty, fined $25, and had his license "picked up."

According to Chief of Police Henry Anderson, this is the sixth license the city authorities have suspended and turned over to the department of safety since the new Motor Vehicle Safety, Responsibility law went into effect July 1.

Charles Sheffield was found guilty of speeding on South Main street at 50 m.p.h. and was fined $10. Edwin James Ervin drove a $10 fine for speeding at 50 m.p.h. on South Main street.

Big Rattler Is Warning to Three

"Let this be a warning to you," allowed Len Simms, a Pete Coker on Monday of this week as he displayed a six and one-half foot rattlesnake with 17 rattles. The rattler was killed on Sunday on their way to the river to go swimming.

The snake was eight and one-half inches in circumference, and weighed ten pounds.

Louis told how he, his brother, Frank, and Pete Coker were on their way to the river on Thursday of last week. They saw a big rattler in the road near Adabel and killed it. This one was five feet and three inches long.

Then on Sunday they went in swimming again and their times, only a hundred yards from where they killed the five-footer, they saw and killed the six-and-one-half-footer.

He was an ugly whopper.

ANNOUNCEMENT
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Chambers of New Iberia, La., announce the engagement of their daughter, Zettie Chambers, to Pvt. Rayford Townsend Warnock of Ft. Myers, Va. The wedding will take place August 15.

One Great Step In Our Progress

IT'S an unusual name. But what goes on there is not funny—it's serious business. Japalyinka is the name.

And fine Angus cattle is the business. A. P. (Bish) Murphy and Mrs. J. E. Rushing have developed some of the finest Angus cattle in this section on Japalyinka's 225 acres of pasture.

The farm is located on U. S. 301 between Statesboro and the airport.

Starting with only seven heifers they bought at the 1948 Atlanta stock show and sale, these Bulloch countians have added to their herd until today it includes 115 Aberdeen - Angus of championship stock.

The herd bulls, "Ethian of Dwight" and "Wideman of Bulloch," have attracted widespread attention and attractive offers for each of these cattle have been turned down. Their offspring have shown in Atlanta and Macon shows. The first time a Japalyinka steer was entered in the popular Statesboro Fat Stock Show he was declared the reserve champion.

Mr. Murphy and Mrs. Rushing run Japalyinka like any other business. Two hundred and twenty-five acres of the 300-acre farm are in pastures. A hundred acres are in Coastal Bermuda and Dixie Crimson. For winter and early spring grazing, there are 65 acres of fescue and ladino clover. For hot and dry weather there are 12 acres of sericea lespedeza and 30 acres of kudzu. Two farm ponds assure a year-round water supply. There is a 10-acre area of Pensacola Bahia grass used from time to time to give the other areas an opportunity to come back after heavy grazing.

The farm's equipment is designed to do just the job needed. A regular blade mowing machine is used for cutting sericea and grass hay; a pick-up baler for getting it ready for the barn; a rotary mower is used on the areas where the hay is not to be saved. There's a combine for harvesting seed, a fertilizer spreader that is used liberally, a mechanical post-hole digger. And tractors to furnish the power.

Mr. Murphy is a perfectionist—he does everything on Japalyinka as if it must meet the standards prescribed by any experienced station or cattle breeder.

Mrs. Rushing plays an important part in the farm's operation. "We have the best Angus cattle we could find," she says.

Japalyinka is the story of many of the farms in Bulloch county which are turning more and more to cattle and the pastures to care for them.

Farmers in this section know that they can keep pastures for cattle the year round by careful planning.

It's been one of the great steps in the progress of our county—the turning to livestock.

And it's to their credit.

Are We That Far Ahead?

IT'S ALWAYS a disappointment to us when we turn to the report of livestock auctions in Georgia and find that there's no report on the Statesboro auctions.

There's Albany, Americus, Ashburn, Athens, Atlanta, Blackshear, Carrollton, Dawson, Douglas, Elberton, Hawkinsville, Jackson, LaGrange, Louisville, Lyons, Macon, Moultrie, Nashville, Ocala, Rome, Social Circle, Sylvester, Thomaston, Vidalia, Washington, Windsor.

But no Statesboro! We boast of having the largest livestock market in the state.

But are we ashamed of the fact, that we don't publish it alongside the other markets in the state?

Or is it that we are so far ahead that we can afford to completely ignore the position of these markets who do publish their reports?

He Speaks His Mind

CONGRATULATIONS to our neighbor, Milton Beckerman, editor and publisher of The Claxton Enterprise.

Editor Beckerman's Enterprise was awarded the Theron S. Shope trophy by the Georgia Press Association at its annual newspaper awarding in Savannah for the most fearless editorial written in Georgia newspapers.

The award was based upon Mr. Beckerman's anti-Klax Klan editorial. We know him to be an editor who speaks his mind and prints what he's thinking.

Congratulations to our neighbor.

Mail Your Check Today

HAVE YOU mailed a check to Mr. McAllister for Red Cross Aid to the flood victims in the four-state area in the Midwest?

Remember back in 1930 when that tornado struck Bulloch county?

Remember that the Red Cross moved into this community and did a wonderful job for the victims of that tornado?

We are being asked to raise just $300 to send to the Red Cross to aid in relieving the suffering in that flood area.

Send your check to C. B. McAllister today, and know that tragedy could strike here and that sympathetic people all over the nation would be called upon to help us.

Any amount will help.

We'll Believe Him

SO WE THINK we've been having unusual weather.

We gave last winter that label—"the most unusual winter in the experience of our community," we said of the "big freeze."

And now we're saying that of the high

90-degree weather we've been having this summer.

And there's more unusual weather in the offing, if we are to believe a weather prophet who lives in Vidalia.

A Negro man there, with a reputation for forecasting the weather with some degree of accuracy, says dog days have begun. He says all signs point to 40 hot days—meaning 40 days of miserable weather, and that of the 40 there'll be at least 25 days during which we'll be getting rain.

We'll believe him—he's as accurate as the man on the street who looks into the sky and allows, "Looks like rain."

For Progress

The new store includes the remodeling of the old Brady Department Store and the old United store. New fixtures, new lighting make the store attractive.

The new store is worthy of North Main street and Statesboro.

And it is another step in the progress of Statesboro and Bulloch county.

Are You a 'Tailgater'?

ARE YOU A TAILGATER? If you are, you're a menace on the highways—and you should stop tailgating right now. If you don't chances are you may be the cause of an accident that could result in serious injury or death to yourself or fellow motorists.

What is tailgating? It's driving "too close for comfort" behind another vehicle on the road. Professional drivers, cooperating in a national share-the-road campaign, are signing pledges that they will help eliminate tailgating and improve passing practices on the highways.

And what applies to drivers of big, heavy vehicles can, in a large measure, apply to individual drivers of smaller private cars, in the opinion of Director Garland T. Byrd, of the Georgia Citizens Council, sponsor of the state-wide "Operation Safety" program.

"If every Georgia motorist would THINK safety, traffic accidents in our state would show a marked decline," Mr. Byrd declared. "We are making progress in highway safety, but there are still far too many traffic accidents. You have to practice safety; it doesn't just come to you."

One of the best safety rules to practice is to maintain sufficient distance between your vehicle and the one ahead. Just keep telling yourself over and over again: "I'm going to stop tailgating."—The Dalton Citizen.

Cigarettes, Pipes, Apples, Budgets, And Snake Plants

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

AT LAST we have decided on a sure for the tobacco jar surrounded by a pipe holder and a number of pipes which have been gathered during these many months. It is to be planted with a pretty snake plant—and surely it will no longer be a reminder of its early futile life.

It happened like this. A family council was held at our house when the head of the house brought up the momentous question of cutting the budget. In fact, that is a monthly, but unanswered question. As usual, we went over every item of expense and decided that the only thing we could cut was the head of the house's cigarettes. Finally, he valiantly admitted that the smoking was a wasteful and foolish habit that he could throw over. So for one week he did without his cigarettes. By this time the rest of us were exhausted with having to live with so cross a body that he all felt genuine relief when he announced that he had decided that he'd smoke a pipe.

Pipe smoking, as you well know, he smoothly informed us, is much less expensive than cigarette smoking. For one thing, the tobacco is cheaper, and then, too, the pipe is more trouble and can't be lit up so frequently or easily as a cigarette. So a pipe was bought, and with it a huge can of tobacco. (It wouldn't have been necessary to buy a pipe had it not been that this man had thrown pipes overboard for good a couple of years before, and I had given away a pretty good collection of them.)

In a couple of days a new pipe made its appearance at the house. Without even asking, we were told that it came free with a pound of tobacco, and the beautiful girl was the former Virginia Mason, a descendant of George Mason (born in Fairfax county, Virginia, who drew up the Virginia Constitution and Bill of Rights).

Mrs. Bobby Wornock had the lovely picture made from the tin type for her dear friend, Mrs. Virginia Mason Bratton, of York, S. C., as a birthday gift. The little girl in the portrait will be 82 years old on September 9. Think how Mrs. Bratton's eyes will be dimmed with tears of happiness as she receives this lovely gift from her friend and well-wisher whose home is at Stilton and who works at the Bulloch County Health Department.

A. M. SELIGMAN ENJOYED an experience new to him, an experience the rest of us will never have. While in New York, the idea hit him. Why not call up Mama and talk to her about the Quaker Salad? He very easily convinced himself that it would be money well spent, for he probably never again would have occasion to call Mary? He very easily convinced himself that it would be money well spent, for he probably never again would have occasion to call Mary? He very easily convinced himself that it would be money well spent, for he probably never again would have occasion to call Mary?

One day we stopped in at the boss's office. We were not spying, mind you, but we couldn't help eavesdropping on new pipes on his desk. In explanation we were told that pipe smokers don't want to smoke the same pipe all of the time—they have to have changes.

A few days later the mail man brought a package to our house. When the owner opened up the package, he explained that it was such a good buy—six pipes, some that sold for as high as five dollars—all selling for only $10.98. A bargain like that just couldn't be passed up, you know. Of course, pipes have a place—and a nice place for pipes is a stand.

For two weeks we noticed great contentment in our man. He was even singing under his breath, "Give a man a horse he can ride the land." "If a man can't have a horse to ride, surely he can smoke a pipe." The first of the month came and along with it came the bills. There was no called meeting of the family that month because of the pipes, but, unfortunately, a magazine came along with the bills, a magazine carrying an article on smoking. I read something like this—a cigarette smoker chops off ten years of his life, but pipe smokers chop off fifteen. The cigarette smoker can extend his life by smoking through a filter. The pipes were abandoned, and cigarettes and a filter were purchased. After some two or so days the filter followed the pipes into discard.

When we discuss the budget nowadays, we don't dare bring up the matter of cutting out cigarettes—it's too expensive.

BARBER SHOP RUMOR—Alfred Dorman and Bill Bowen are going to run for mayor of Statesboro. That's the word this being spread in one of our local barber shops.

GROW—Six Statesboro automobile drivers have lost their drivers' licenses since July 1, after having been caught, charged with, and found guilty of driving "under the influence," which is the law's way of saying "driving an automobile while drunk." Mayor Come has picked up their licenses under the new law which went into effect on July 1.

CONGRATULATIONS to Avant Edentoff of the Stilton Future Farmers of America. He has been named third vice-president of the state association. And to George Chance, Jr., Avant's teacher and advisor, we say, "well done."

TATER RUCKER visited his old home in Homer, Georgia, recently. The occasion was a county-wide "Tater" celebration with all the Sunday schools in the county getting together for a big day. "Tater," Mrs. Rucker and

Ben Smith went together. "Saw Zack Henderson's pa," allowed Tater? "He picked cotton together with me for ten days. That's the word this being spread in one of our local barber shops."

CONFEDERATE FLAGS are a-flying. There may be something to the advice—"hold onto your Confederate money, boys, the South's gonna rise again."

DEDRICK WATERS got tired of things getting so hot in his barber shop. He put in air conditioning. But what about us boys with so little hair on our heads that we're subject to sudden changes in the temperature? Do we get a hat to wear while getting our hair trimmed about the ears?

"BUSINESS AS USUAL" allows Wallace Cobb at the Bulloch County Bank while all the remodeling is going on.

HENRY LANIER wishes people would make a trip with him some day when his truck is full of garbage and trash. It would be a revelation in how not to put out garbage and trash," he says.

JOINT BIRTHDAY PARTY
An enjoyable event of the season was the radio and theater party Saturday morning in honor of the birthday of Alayne Burness, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burness Jr. and Jackie Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Anderson, both of Nevils.

The group assembled at the radio station in time for the 10 o'clock party. The radio and theater party was a very successful one. The group enjoyed swimming and enjoying a picnic lunch. These boys had a chance of going to other places for their birthdays, including Tybee, Magnolia Springs and others, but they definitely expressed a strong desire to go to the Statesboro Recreation Center. The group attended the afternoon show at the Georgia Theatre. Ice cream was served in mid-afternoon with candy. The party was composed of Judy Nemeth, Gloria Jean Young, Jimmie Lou Lianier, John Thomas Hodges, Alayne Burness and Jackie Anderson.

SMITH FAMILY DINNER
The children and grandchildren of the late E. A. Smith were present Saturday evening at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. E. A. Smith with all the family as hosts to a cousin who had never seen any of her Smith relatives until Saturday, when they reached Statesboro.

Last October while Mrs. Smith with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dodd, and sons, Sidney III, and Roddy were touring the west, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wueste of Eagle Pass, Texas. Mrs. Wueste is a niece of the late Mr. Smith. On Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wueste and children, Edward Jr., and Jim, arrived in Statesboro to visit their Smith relatives. They were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jones Sr., and the family gathered at the home of Mrs. E. A. Smith for dinner.

Dinner was served buffet style and the guests were seated; twelve of them at the table in the dining room, eight in the sun parlor, and four in the music room. The table in the dining room, overlaid with a handmade Irish linen cover bordered with Irish lace and beautifully embroidered, was centered with a crystal epergne with white holly leaves, lavender asters and lemon yellow marigolds. Asters and marigolds were used on the other tables.

Barbecued chicken, baked ham and relishes, salads, hot breads, and desserts were on the menu. Those present besides the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jones Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Zach Smith and son, Zach III, Miss Betty Smith, and Bobby Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith Jr. of Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dodd and sons, Sidney III, and Roddy. Financing Is OUR Business
Important Features Of The John Hancock Farm Loan

1—Low Interest Rates
Interest rates are as low as safe business practices will permit. Rates must yield a satisfactory return to the investor and yet must not be an unnecessary drain on your farm's production. Your interest rate is guaranteed—it will remain the same for the life of your loan.

2—Liberal Prepayment Options
The John Hancock prepayment policy is liberal. The Company is always ready to consider prepayment if its refusal should force financial hardship on the borrower.

3—Long Terms
Terms are available over a long or short period of years as your needs may dictate. You select the number of years you wish.

4—No Commissions, Stock, Or Appraisal Fees
There are no brokerage or appraisal fees, no stocks to buy. You do not need life insurance, either, to cover your loan. The John Hancock offers an excellent Mortgage Redemption Policy to all borrowers; you may buy or not as you see fit. You receive the full amount you borrow, except for the actual legal fees necessary to close the loan. You do not pay interest on money you never see nor do you penalize yourself by trying to carry a loan at heavy cost.

5—Flexibility
The John Hancock loan is flexible. It provides the borrower with needed funds which are to be repaid according to the ability and land-use program of his farm.

6—Rush Closing Service
When you need money in a hurry, the prompt closing of your loan is available through the rush closing service at no additional cost.

We noticed that a majority of the Senators have decided to forego the long summer layoff from the Senate floor.

At the Golden, D. C., has never been noted for summer comfort. In fact, some foreign countries give service men "tropic pay" while stationed on the banks of the Potomac.

We know the Senators have fences to build and repair in their home backwoods. But we believe they'll be doing more good for more people by staying on the job. It's downright encouraging.

We congratulate Avard E. Edens of Siltson upon being elected a vice president of the Future Farmers of Georgia recently. Avard is president of the Siltson senior class and a F.F.A. chapter, and captain of the basketball and baseball teams.

Farmers Urged To Put Cotton In Government Loan

More than 250 Bulloch county cotton growers were urged to put their cotton in government loan this fall at a mass meeting here Monday night.

The loan rate for 1951 is only slightly less than the actual spot will bring on the market, giving growers everything to gain and nothing to lose by putting cotton in the loan this year.

C. M. Cowart, secretary of the Bulloch County Farm Bureau, presided at the meeting on Monday.

He presented the report from a cotton-belt-wide meeting in New Orleans last week, and from the state-wide meeting held in Macon last Thursday. It was pointed out that this effort to keep cotton off the market this year was not a local idea but was being pushed all over the cotton belt.

All the cotton growing states are holding county and community meetings at the present time to urge cotton in the loan.

H. Smith, J. A. Hart and J. L. Deal went with Mr. Cowart to the Macon meeting and helped him tell the "hold cotton off the market" story Monday.

Those present voted to hold their cotton off the market by putting it in the loan and encouraging every cotton farmer in the county to do the same. They also asked that the support price on cotton be raised to 40 cents immediately, pointing out that the secretary of agriculture could not do this without the support of the present authority given him.

The group also asked the secretary to assist in every way possible to expedite and expand exports, to stimulate domestic activity by stepping up the schedule of military procurement, and stockpiling cotton for national use.

Mr. Cowart pointed out that the spinners did not have much cotton (about enough to get through this month). Some spinners told the Macon group that if this crop is held off the market for 30 days that the price would advance to 40 cents.

Mr. Cowart also stated that, assuming he would make the average predicted yield of 292 pounds of line per acre this year, the crop would cost him 30.13 cents per pound to produce, and that 40 cents would not be an unreasonable profit. This would only be $9 per acre.

H. L. Wingate, Georgia Farm Bureau president, will be speaker for the Siltson Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday night, August 22.

The meeting is slated for the usual kick-off on membership renewal. P. M. Mikell, county Farm Bureau president said.

Mr. Mikell would especially like to have every officer, as well as as officers, attend the Siltson meeting.

Indications at this time are that all of Bulloch county will be included in the rural telephone program except that part served by the Statesboro Telephone Company and the Pembroke Telephone Company. However, these groups have asked to be included and have been accepted by the Bulloch County Telephone Cooperative, Mr. Rushing said.

The engineers are expected to actually locate the proposed lines and exchanges. Mr. Rushing urged all who had not already done so to sign up for telephones through the county agents' office or through the office of the directors. It is essential that the engineers know what de-
